A D A
Some girls cost a fortune
A E A
Some girls cost a dime
A D A
Some girls like to cheat and fool ya
A E A
Some mess around with your mind
Some girls just ain't worth it
They break up your happy home
They leave your broken heart in pieces
But I can't leave girls alone

Some girls ya wanna give diamonds
Some girls ya wanna give gold
Some girls say they'd never leave ya
And leave you out in the cold
Some girls just ain't worth it
They break up your happy home
They leave your broken heart in pieces
But I can't leave 'em alone

Well girls they just ain't worth it
I say it's best to leave em alone
They'll tell ya that you're their one and only
Then they start to roam
Girls you can take 'em or leave em
They'll take everything you own
They'll leave ya cryin' by the side of a road
But I can't leave girls alone.

Some girls just ain't worth it
They break up your happy home
They leave your broken heart in pieces
But I can't leave girls alone.

Some girls live in mansions
Some drive in fancy cars
Some girls like to fool ya
Some girls leave you scars

Some girls sail in fancy boats
Some fly in fancy planes
Some girls lie and cheat on you
Some girls give you pains

Some girls dress in classy clothes
Some girls sing and dance
Some girls got a rovin' eye
Some got no romance

Some girls so good lookin'
Some girls so refined
Some girls are so cold and cruel
Some are so unkind

Some girls got the passion
Some girls got the spark
Some girls blind ya with their charm
And leave ya out in the dark

Girls you can take em or leave em
They'll take everything you own
They'll leave ya cryin by the side of a road
But I can't leave girls alone.
Girls they just ain't worth it
They break up your happy home
They leave your broken heart in pieces
But I can't leave girls alone.

Girls they just ain't worth it
They break up your happy home
They leave your broken heart in pieces
But I can't leave girls alone.

Girls you can take em or leave em
They'll take everything you own
They'll leave ya cryin by the side of a road
But I can't leave girls alone.
Girls they just ain't worth it
They break up your happy home
They leave your broken heart in pieces
But I can't leave girls alone.
